

Raised in a Roman Catholic home, Greg became a Christian in 1980 while a Psychology major at the Ohio State University. After watching Christ save his girlfriend, Nancy, he married her—and enrolled in Bob Jones University where he earned an M.Div. degree and a Ph.D. in New Testament. He also earned an M.Ed. in Counseling from Clemson University.

Greg currently teaches in the undergraduate and graduate biblical counseling programs at BJU. He also serves as the pastor-teacher of Trinity Bible Church of Greer, SC.

He has spoken at churches, camps, and conferences throughout the United States. He has taken mission trips to Mexico, Africa (Cameroon, South Africa, Zambia), India, Italy, Germany, Turkey, Australia, and PNG, and serves on two mission boards.

Greg and Nancy have three daughters (all graduates of BJU) and 3 grandchildren—all of whom are Ohio State and Clemson fans! Greg enjoys dates with Nancy—especially on his motorcycle, hanging out with his family, and studying the Bible.
